  - A. Yes
  - B. No

2. Have you ever raised chickens, geese, rabbits, or other animals that would be considered livestock?
  - A. Yes
  - B. No

3. If, at any time, you have raised small livestock, was this a permitted use in the zoning district that your property was located?
  - A. Yes
  - B. No
  - C. I do not know
  - D. I have never raised small livestock

4. Do you feel that the keeping of small livestock in urban residential zoning districts should be allowed?
  - A. Yes
  - B. No
  - C. Undecided

5. Please choose the statement that best reflects your position:
  - A. Each urban residential lot should be allowed to have the same number of small livestock, regardless of lot size.
  - B. The number of small livestock allowed on each urban residential lot should be related to the size of the lot (e.g. larger lot size equals more animals).
  - C. The number of animals should not be regulated under zoning laws.
  - D. Small livestock should not be allowed on urban residential lots.

5. Please choose the statement that best reflects your position:
  - A. Animal enclosures should be constructed closer to the property owner’s main dwelling than they are to any main dwellings on adjacent properties, regardless of zoning district setbacks.
  - B. Animal enclosures should be required only to meet specified setbacks, even if the enclosure will be located closer to an adjacent property owner’s main dwelling than the small livestock owner’s main dwelling.
  - C. Animal enclosures should be allowed to be placed anywhere on the property.
  - D. Small livestock should not be allowed on urban residential lots.
