

“Chicken Ordinance” Public Meeting

The Kodiak Island Borough will be hosting a meeting on May 16th from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the Borough Assembly Chambers to discuss the development of regulations relating to the keeping of chickens and other small livestock in residential zoning districts.

At this meeting Borough staff will be giving a presentation on:

- Activities to date
- The draft ordinance
- Next steps

The goals of this meeting are to:

- Provide information to the public through a presentation and handouts
- Facilitate discussion on the draft ordinance
- Document concurrence and concerns with the draft ordinance
- Let the public know about opportunities to participate

For more information about this meeting, please contact Sara Mason, Community Development Director, Kodiak Island Borough, 907-486-9360 or smason@kodiakak.us.

